Shoshone Elementary

December 2017

Christmas Program

Our music teacher, Mrs. Myhre, and kindergarten through fifth grade students would like to invite family and friends to their holiday Christmas program, "A Gingerbread Christmas" to be held on Wednesday, December 13, 7:15-7:45 p.m. in the gym. Students will recite excerpts from this timeless story and share some wonderful music that goes along with it. We hope you attend our fall Storyline Culmination and Christmas program.

End of 2nd Quarter/1st Semester

Second quarter/first semester will end on December 20, 2017. Report cards will be sent home on Thursday, January 4, 2018.

We will have a short, end of second quarter/1st semester awards assembly on Wednesday, January 10, from 2:50-3:20 p.m. in our lunchroom. During the awards assembly we will recognize students with 2nd quarter/1st semester perfect attendance, classroom citizenship, classroom high achievers, classroom most improved and outstanding playground behavior. Parents are welcome to attend.

One Night Only - Free Admission Idaho's Wildlife Center

Family and friends are invited to attend the grand opening of our Idaho's Wildlife Center on Wednesday, December 13, 6:00-7:00 p.m. sponsored by Shoshone elementary students. This impressive storyline culmination will be held in each one of our elementary classrooms so please take a few minutes to visit them all.

Kindergarten presents Idaho native mammals in rooms 129 & 133. First grade will amaze you with their Idaho native amphibians that grow in and around ponds in rooms 130 & 132. Second grade will astonish you with their Idaho native reptiles and amphibians display in rooms 125 & 127. Third grade has been studying Idaho native rodents and would love to share their new found knowledge with you in rooms 120 & 119. Fourth grade has created an awesome Idaho native bug exhibit in rooms 117 & 118 and fifth grade will astound you with their Idaho native birds of prey presentation in rooms 115 & 116.

Christmas Vacation

Christmas vacation officially begins after early school dismissal (1:00 p.m.) on Wednesday, December 20, and continues until January 2. School will resume on January 3. Happy Holidays!
